"Interning last summer gave me the opportunity to work with a diverse group of children. I learned a great deal about how culture impacts a child's daily living and I got to experience the uniting of different cultures as children interacted each day. I was able to cater my internship to my interests and my passion for Social Work and I was humbled by how much I learned from working with the children & SON Ministries."

Claire Scott, OSU Social Work student/ SON Ministries College Intern

Internship Responsibilities: Intern will work with a team of staff and volunteers to implement this program at the highest level. Responsibilities will include helping plan and facilitating daily day camp activities that provide enrichment and prosocial opportunities for children who face suburban poverty. Part of the planned activities will revolve around a child-run restaurant, depending on the site. This is an opportunity to develop leadership, organization, and people skills. Interns are also strongly encouraged to bring their unique skills/gifts and passions to this program. Examples: an intern passion about photography would serve as site photographer; art education major could plan and execute art projects with the children; recreation management major could offer skills or clinics and organize a friendly tournament on site.
